ADVERTISING

REGULAR CLASSIFIED ADS: All of these type ads will be reduced to 1/3 their size. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about 1/3 of a page when printed. Nothing will be left out, the type size will just be reduced. All ads of this type should be submitted typed (if possible) on WHITE paper only. Type only on a black ribbon that is not worn out, because if it is too light, it will reproduce poorly. Observe normal margins. The rate for these is $5.25 per page. We must reserve the write to reassemble (only, if necessary) your ads of this type to fill out the page. For smaller ads, the rate is 10¢ per line (7 inch typed line).

SPECIAL 25% CLASSIFIED ADS: THese 25% ads are reduced to only 1/2 their size, instead of 1/3. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about a half page when printed up. The rate for this type is $7.50 per page. Submit as above. And again we reserve the right to reassamble (only if necessary).

SPECIAL CLASSIFIED ADS: These are printed as is. Therefore if you submit a full page (8½ x 11), it will be 8½ x 11 when printed up. Submit in the same manner as above. $14.00 Per Page.

HERE IS AN IMPORTANT WAY YOU CAN SAVE MONEY ON YOUR RB&CC ADVERTISING:
SAY, FOR INSTANCE, YOU HAVE A THREE PAGE AD THAT YOU WANT TO RUN AT THE "REGULAR" RATE OF $5.25 PER PAGE. THAT WOULD COST YOU A TOTAL OF $15.75. HOWEVER, HERE IS HOW YOU COULD RUN IT FOR ONLY $14.00. YOUR THREE PAGE AD RUN "REGULAR" WOULD COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED UP. THEREFORE, IF YOU SUBMIT YOUR AD ALREADY LAYED OUT AND TYPED UP ON A SHEET 13½ INCHES WIDE AND 17 INCHES LONG (WHICH WILL BE REDUCED DOWN TO 8½ x 11), YOU CAN RUN IT AT THE "SPECIAL" RATE OF $14.00 AND SAVE $1.75. YOU "MAKE UP SHEETS" CAN BE MADE BY USING CELLOPHANE TAPE AND REGULAR WHITE PAPER, TAPING THEM SO THAT THEY FIT THE MEASUREMENTS. THEN YOU CAN TYPE UP YOUR AD ON OTHER PAPER AND GLUE IT ON THE MAKE UP SHEET AND MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT. THIS ENABLES YOU TO MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT, WHICH WILL BE PRINTED JUST AS YOU SUBMIT IT, PROVIDING YOU FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS. REMEMBER, ALWAYS USE A GOOD DARK RIBBON.
ALSO, IF YOU ARE GOING TO SUBMIT A TWO PAGE AD AT THE "25%" RATE (TWO PAGES AT 25% WILL COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED), YOU CAN SAVE THIS WAY TOO. TWO PAGES SUBMITTED SEPARATELY AT THE "25%" RATE WOULD COST YOU $15.00. BUT IF YOU SUBMIT IT ALREADY LAYED OUT ON A SHEET 12 INCHES WIDE BY 15½ INCHES LONG, YOUR COST IS, AGAIN, ONLY $14.00--A SAVINGS OF $1.00.
YOU DISPLAY ADVERTISERS CAN MAKE UP YOUR LAYOUTS TOO USING THE ABOVING MEASUREMENTS, DEPENDING ON HOW MUCH YOU WANT IT REDUCED IN SIZE

DISPLAY ADS: THESE ARE 25¢ per page more and are usually given better locations than classified.
REGULAR DISPLAY (reduced to 1/3 its size) $5.50 per page
25% DISPLAY (reduced to 1/2 its size) $7.75 per page.
SPECIAL DISPLAY (printed as is) $14.25 per page.

When submitting any of the above ads, be sure to specify; "REGULAR", "25%", or "SPECIAL". FULL payment must accompany all ads. Any ads received after any given deadline will be run in the following issue WITHOUT EXCEPTION !!

High Prices Paid for Ancient Comic Books

By CLARK KENT
as told to DAVID LEWIN

SHAZAM! And no one knows what it means. No one that is except a few hard core comic collectors.

Why during the 40's every kid worth his weight in anything knew that SHAZAM was the magic word that turned Billy Batson into Captin Marvel, The Worlds Mightiest Mortal.

Captain Marvel --another forgotten term. Yet at one time Captain Marvel was more popular than Superman.

"Those were the good old days," moan comic collectors, but rather than let them just fade into oblivion the collectors have done something: they have organized.

A select group of about 3,000 collectors have formed various organizations dedicated to the promotion of comic collecting. And the collectors even have a name for themselves ---panelologists.

These panelologists don't just collect comics, they print magazine about comic book characters, invent their own super heros to write about, and display their many old comic books, some of them worth $100, at conventions.

And there are even two Hollywood bookstores that cater to the wishes of the Batman-and-company-loving public.

At these stores comicbooks can be bought for ten cents. But the "collectors items" go for anywhere from ten dollars to one hundred dollars.

Not many people understand why a comic would sell for even ten dollars. And most comics don't. To be valuable a comic book should be from a certain period of time, the early 40's or before, and be in excellent condition.

Of course other factors are also involved. Books about popular heroes demand higher prices than others, and higher prices are paid for comic books containing drawings by certain artists.

Why people buy, these expensive books is another mystery. Some people plead nostalgia when buying Others say they buy for investment purposes (comic books have gone up in price tremendously in recent years). Some buy just because they enjoy reading the masterpieces.

And there are other less obvious reasons. Many engineering students buy Buck Rodgers and Flash Gordon just to see the airplane designs.

Here Comes Superman

Buck and Flash were two comic strip heroes that never really made it in the comic book field successfully. The first really popular comic book hero was the one and only Superman, in June, 1938.

Then came Sandman (another forgotten name), Batman, Captain Marvel, Capaain America, and so on.

World War II was a crucial period in the life of comic books. For in this period they achieved their highest circulation,with Superman and Captain Marvel each selling 1,500,000 plus at times per issue.

Comic book heros took an active role in World War II. In many stories Captain America or Boy Commandos, or almost any other hero could be found fighting Nazi forces. (See photo of All-select comic)

After the war, comic book sales, sank, and many publishers tried to remedy the situation with their "Crime" comic books (see Shock Suspense photo).

These crime comics portrayed crime in an almost-attractive manner, until 1954 when the public was activated against them.

In fact the backlash of the crime comics was so strong that until 1959 it looked like the super-hero type comic book might just fade away. But,alas, that was not fated to be.

And in 1959 comic books entered the "Second Golden Age." In this year, and the next two, many old comic heroes who had, for low sales reasons, been dropped began to reappear.

Today comic books are in a favorable period. Sales are high and and the hard core collectors are growing more numerous.

Today's comic books are superior to the 1940 books in most ways. The books of today are fantastically improved. And the stories rather than just dealing with the cops -and-robbers-good-over- bad theme often have science-fiction overtones with excellent unifacation.

NEW RB&CC SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
Due to ever increasing costs (printing, envelopes, and continuous postage increases) we had had to change our rates. These can be found on page two, please be sure to observe them. We absorbed the last postage increase without increasing our standard rate but we could not do it again. Single copies are now 65¢ each ($1.00 for first class). However, even with our increase, with an 8 issue subscription, each issues costs you only 43¢ each--still a pretty good bargain.

BLASTS FROM THE READERS

Dear G.B.,

John Fantucchio's cover for #55 was mind-boggling. Though I never bought a Simon & Kirby issue of THE FLY, I doubt whether even they could have conveyed such excitement in a wordless illustration. (EDITOR: John has the ability to take a dull character, and in one drawing put more excitement, detail, and just plain great art, than most pro comic artists put in a whole story. I am waiting for the day when John consents to draw an entire strip--that has to be out of this world). This cover intensifies the contempt I feel for the sewage this character became as Fly Man. I thought the Shadow cover of #53 would never be topped, but in my opinion it was this time. Can't wait to see John's next triumph! (You don't have long to wait, he just did the back cover for vol. 3 of the COLLECTORS HANDBOOK, and more RB&CC covers are on the way, including one for #60 that will be ....., well, you'll have to wait and see.)

I must say I do miss Rick Weingroff and hope he rejoins fandom one day in the near future. And what ever happened to Phil Sueling? His column was always a joy to read. I have no real quarrel with most of the newspaper write-ups you reprint, some of which are of more than passing interest (that George Reeves one of a few issues ago was really welcome). The one out of The Tucson Daily Citizen in #53 ("Rich Lode in Old Comics") is the only one I've taken real exception to. Although the lady being interviewed obviously knows her newspaper strips and how to make a buck, I question the credibility of anyone who thinks ALL STAR featured the Justice League, numbering among it's members Captain America! I also object to her over-simplification of the Code, which could the uninitiated to believe that anyone who objects to the Code (such as myself) is a sadistic, cross-burning murderer. I dislike the idea of such impressions being even sub-consciously suggested to the general public (who thinks we're pretty crazy already) and also to the many new fans you are bring in, in droves with your many ads in pro comics.

DEAR G.B.,

For the past year there's been a definite improvement in RB&CC. First you switched to complete offset, then you ironed out the bugs, and now you have a magazine that anyone would be proud to own. Not only do you give fandom a forum to bargain for our hobby, but you give fandom a smart, professional appearence with your quality covers and equally good layout. (EDITOR: Our layout work still leaves a lot to be desired and probably always will, because of having to take all sizes of ads and match them up within a few days, and because of the limited amount of time available.)

Speaking of covers, the cover of RB&CC #55 was one of the best I've seen anywhere. In answer to Validar Wyndheim, I believe that Fantucchio uses an opaque water color or tempra. And, I might add, he uses it beautifully!

One thing wrong though, I didn't see many articles in 55. But the one I did see hit me on a sore spot.. I'm what you might call a silent protester. I don't write letters to comic editors. As a matter of fact, the subject of Adam Strange was the only time I ever wrote. I've never forgiven DC for canceling Adam, and I probably never will. They (the powers that be) seemed to overlook the fact that Adam, Fox, Infantino, and Anderson had just been awarded an Alley for M.I.S. #75. We in fandom may be a minority, but we know what we like--and most everybody liked Adam! To be exact, Adam Strange was the best science fiction that Comicdom has ever known, and quite possibly will ever know. It compares to Star Trek in quality and the artwork can be placed beside some of the EC panels and ranked with them. I met the change in MIS with disbelief and hoped that it was just temporary. It took some three months before reality soaked in. I've never bothered to purchase some of those last issues and when I do buy them I won't pay very much. I met his quest appearence in HAWKMAN with high hopes and although I enjoyed the story immensely, I was disheartened to learn that Adam would not return to Earth. From where I sit, it seems like we've lost him. Even Hawkman and The Flash are heading downward, but fortunately not as fast as the "Champion of Champions." I would like to hear from other fans on this subject, either pro or con.

Dear G.B.,

How'd you ever manage to get Wally Wood to do the cover for RB&CC #54? (EDITOR: Wally donated that cover and this one, he tells me, to show his appreciation of what the RB&CC has done to help fandom in general and other fanzines, particularly WITZEND. The thoughtfulness and help that (and others) he has shown and given certainly encourges me to keep plugging.) No matter how you did it, I'm sure glad you did! I dunno how that savage got way up there on that jet, but it made for an interesting picture. One thing that could help your covers,though, is the adoption of a permanent title logo; the one used on this issue would serve well. Of course, you could use a different logo when the need arises; for example, this logo wouldn't have fit on last issue's superb cover by John Fantucchio without considerable trimming of the edges of the painting. You had a couple of good articles in this issue: Gail Sutton's article on who is the top comics company was interesting, and it showed a lot of research, but in my opinion he missed the point entirely. Everybody knows that DC has a larger circulation; not only do they have more titles, but most of their titles sell better than other companies' titles. (EDITOR: I contend that one reason DC titles sell more than Marvel is because DC has twice the distribution (more on some titles) that Marvel has.) As I see it, the discussion as to who's number one is not quantity-wise, quality-wise. Personally, I think Marvel is number one, with DC second--actually, with Charlton's demise, there is no other serious contender.

D.D. Ensign's comparasion of Hogarth, Manning, and Giolett was very well thought out, and although it would have taken several more pages to do justice to such a subject (at least a full page in reduced type), Mr. Ensign did a fine job in the relatively short space he used. He touched on all the important comparasions and contrasts, and it was a nice change from the usual type of articles that appear in the RB&CC. I'd like to see Mr. Ensign do more articles in the near future.

EAR G.B.,

In RB&CC #53 I noticed a letter from a fan giving his pinion of the various comic book companies. I've chosen C as the best and here are some of my reasons: Originality- n RB&CC 53, there was an article about a new hero - Captain nfinity. He was granted powers by the "Galactic Guardians f this particular sector of the universe". This would have een quite fresh and new had it not already been used by C in GREEN LANTERN for 5 years. Quality--They have about he best comics on the market today, not to mention editor- al staff. I once visited NPP and took a tour through their ffices. Afterwards, I met Mr. Julius Schwartz, the best litor DC or any other company has. He was nice enough to ake a few minutes out of his busy schedule to talk to me nd answer a few of my questions. You're lucky if you even et a tour at Marvel. The Comics Themselves--The heroes nd villains are the most original and colorful on the ewstand. Art--The artists are masters in their own right. he penciliers are the best in the business, particularly rmine Infantino and Gil Kane. The inkers make the sketche me to life. They use interesting, lively colors, not drab at tones, seemingly done by children as I've seen in com- titor's mags. Writers--Here, I must single out one out- anding individual, Mr. Gardner Fox. Writing for about comics isn't an easy job, especially when you've done it or over 5 years. And I don't think Mr. Fox has repeated a ot, at least if he has, he has disquised it so well that is indistinguishable from others he has done. And not ite as good as Gardner, but running a close second, is ohn Broome. And a team like that can't be beat.

ear G.B.,

Your latest RB&CC was truly great. Why? Mainly becaus ou had a cover by Wally Wood. He is the best artist I've ver seen. Gail Sutton's article was greatly appreciated. 've been needing a listing of the distribution of those omics. Please feature future listings such as this. The ettercol was very enjoyable! a great improvement over some ou've had in the past. However, I'd still like to see a onger one. I'm glad to see so many fanzine ads--I'll prob ably buy five or six of them. I've noticed that recently that every zine must be photo-offset. This is getting to b ridiculous. Several zines seem more concerned about being printed by offset than featuring good, enjoyable articles o comic strips. I'd like to compliment you on the vast impro ment you've made on the layout of the ads. It's much easier on the eyes and easier to find what I want in the a Keep up the good work.

Bam! Pow! Two Captain Marvels Do Battle In Lawsuit Over Use of Name in Comic Books

By A. KENT MACDOUGALL
Staff Reporter of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

NEW YORK—Is this puny planet too small for two Captain Marvels?

Myron Fass, publisher of comic books with Captain Marvel as "super hero," thinks so. He's suing Martin Goodman, who just launched another line of Captain Marvel comics. Though the two Marvels have little in common except name, their coexistence on newsstands confuses dealers and readers, Mr. Fass contends.

Compounding the confusion, at least for comic book buffs of the pre-Pepsi Generation, is the fond memory of the original Captain Marvel. That red-suited, white-caped apostle of righteousness was transformed from newsboy Billy Batson whenever little Billy shouted the magic word "Shazam!" (The "S" stood for Solomon's wisdom, "H" for Hercules' strength, "A" for Atlas' stamina, "Z" for Zeus' power, "A" for Achilles' heel and "M" for Mercury's speed.)

Courtesy National Periodical Publications Inc.

Fawcett's Marvel

Alas, Captain Marvel was done in by Superman. Superman's publisher, a predecessor to National Periodical Publications Inc., sued Captain Marvel's publisher, Fawcett Publications Inc., in 1941. The charge was that Fawcett illegally appropriated for Captain Marvel such Superman hallmarks as the power to change from an ordinary mortal into a "super being," the ability to fly, and a costume of boots, leotard and cape.

Suit Settled in 1953

"The last time I looked, there were at least a dozen characters as close, or closer, to Superman as Captain Marvel was," says Ralph Daigh, a vice president of Fawcett and cocreator of Captain Marvel. "But we were going out of the comic book business anyway, so management decided to drop the fight." The suit was settled in 1953, with Fawcett agreeing to kill off Captain Marvel for good.

When Mr. Fass, whose main business is publishing confession, movie-TV and girlie magazines, decided in 1965 to launch a comic book line, he seized on the unused but still famous Captain Marvel name. His Captain is Professor Roger Winkle of Dartmoor University in disguise. When menaced, the good professor dons his red Marvel suit, rubs a magic amulet to acquire boundless energy, yells "Split!" and breaks up into six pieces. Arms and legs fly off in different directions to floor foes—Pow? Bam? Wak? Wham! — while his laser beam eyes reduce his adversaries' weapons to molten metal. To make himself whole again, he shouts "Xam!"

Fass' Marvel

The comic book public has been almost as hard on Captain Marvel as have "super villains" Vapor Man, Mr. Brilliant and Dr. Darkness. The public bought an average of only 100,000 copies of the 250,000 copies of each issue printed. Mr. Fass launched the comic as a bimonthly, but reduced its frequency to quarterly and then semiannually.

Offer of $6,000 Rejected

Enter Martin Goodman. Since 1939 he has published Marvel Comics with such heroes as Sub-Mariner, Spiderman, the Human Torch and Captain America. But never Captain Marvel. Last July, Mr. Goodman offered Mr. Fass $6,000 for his rights to Captain Marvel. Mr. Fass turned it down. Undaunted, Mr. Goodman put his artists to work creating a new Captain Marvel.

Hailing from the Kree Galaxy, this Marvel is a captain in the Intergalactic Space Fleet. Its commander, the Imperial Minister of the Supreme Intelligence, sends Marvel to Earth to punish earthlings for having destroyed Intergalactic Sentry No. 459. Marvel accidentally disrupts a U.S. missile launching and escapes pursuing soldiers by blinding them temporarily with black light from his universal beam blaster.

Mr. Fass' retaliatory blast is a trademark infringement suit in a New York state court. His nine-page complaint alleges that the "defendants' use and appropriation of the trademark Captain Marvel was conceived in bad faith, to the damage and irreparable loss of the plaintiff and to the confusion of the magazine distribution industry and the public."

© Marvel Comics Inc.

Goodman's Marvel

Named as defendants with Mr. Goodman are Stan Lee and Gene Colan, cocreators of the new Marvel; Eastern Color Printing Co., Waterbury, Conn., which printed the first issue; and Independent News Co., a National Periodical Publications Inc. subsidiary that distributed it to newsstand wholesalers last month.

Mr. Goodman's forces are preparing to do battle. Says his son, Charles Goodman: "We own the rights to the name Marvel and related uses of the word, including Captain Marvel, and we consider Mr. Fass' publication of Captain Marvel as an infringement on our trademark."

Name squabbles aren't novel to Mr. Fass. Last month, he threatened legal action against Hearst Corp. for naming a teenage magazine Eye. Mr. Fass said he owned that name for his two-year-old cheesecake magazine called Eye. He settled the matter by selling the rights to Eye to Hearst, and renaming his magazine Bold.

THE SHADOW, Ma Perkins, The Fat Man, Orson Welles, and The Lone Ranger—the superstars of yesteryear radio.

The Shadow Knows, How About You?

THE GREAT RADIO HEROES. By Jim Harmon. 263 pp. Doubleday. $4.95.

By ALDEN S. WOOD

"From out of the past come the thundering . . ."

Complete this sentence in 11 (eleven) words and you qualify as one who will wax dewy-eyed over the 15 chapters in this unusual new book written by a top authority on "old time" (thirties, forties, and early fifties) radio "drammers."

Some of the questions Harmon asks will suddenly elicit answers you've forgotten you ever knew. Who is the "only person who knows to whom the invisible voice of the Shadow belongs?" Who was Jack Armstrong's sidekick? Of what show was "Raymond" your host?

If you're old enough, you'll fondly recall the lovely Margo Lane, Billy Fairfield (Shades of Jane Austen), and Inner Sanctum. If you're of the turned-on generation, you twisted your dial a generation too late and you have our sympathy.

FIVE O'CLOCK, as the author points out in his lead, was the hour. This was when, save for certain soap operas such as Stella Dallas, beloved by your dear, old, whilte-haired ma, the action started.

Tom Mix (horse: Tony), Little Orphan Annie, Jack Armstrong . . . these and other never-to-be-forgotten pre-TV adventure shows laced the pre-prandial hour with rare suspense and admonitions to guzzle Ovaltine, gobble Wheaties, and stick to Ralston.

Curiously enough, these unidimensional heroes(ines) offered an opportunity which no video star can provide.

Crouched before your Philco in your corduroy knickers, you could make Tom Mix a blond, his horse a sorrel, his six-gun pearl-handled; you could shape Jack Armstrong's nose to suit your fancy, give him a pair of specs, even make him a southpaw, if you wished. Radio lighted your imagination in a way no glowing tube can do.

HARMON, as he recreates Henry Aldrich, Renfrew of the Mounted, Batman, Ma Perkins, David Harding—Counterspy, and a host of other half-forgotten stars of the ether, presents a delightful trip "back to the days when the West was young."

He utilizes actual scripts to enliven certain chapters and calls back to mind a score of fragmented memories as he pops-in station call letters, announcers' names, and some bits of factual data you probably never knew (such as the date—January 30, 1933—when the first regularly scheduled broadcast of "The Lone Ranger" was made).

The Serutan Generation could not have a more charming Christmas gift than this unusual, well-documented book.

Announcing the

SOUTHWESTERNCON 1968

With two fabulously successful conventions behind them, Texas fandom marches ever onward with THE SOUTHWESTERNCON 1968! Offering all the things fans seek in a convention, THE SOUTHWESTERNCON promises to be the big event of the year in Comic Fandom!

The Con will be held on June 21, 22, and 23 at the Hotel Southland, in the heart of downtown Dallas, and we're expecting well over 100 fans to attend, as well as several pros. There'll be dozens of dealers on hand with literally tens of thousands of comics (both old and new), pulps, s-f magazines and hardbacks, movie posters, BLBs, etc. for sale and trade---a collector's paradise!---and we also have an auction scheduled. We'll have displays of many rare collector's items, foreign comics, and two solid walls lined with original artwork (both fan and pro)! There'll be a fanzine table with a wide selection of zines offered for sale, and we'll have door prizes for lucky fans, and, of course, there will be panel discussions on the important topics in fandom and prodom, with an opportunity for YOU to participate! There'll be many of fandom's leading fans in attendance,... Buddy Saunders, Matt Curtis, Marc Schooley, Gary Acord, Tom Reamy, Howard Keltner, L.L. Simpson, Kent Russell, Eddie Addings, Howard ("The Shadow") Waldrop, Mike Benton, Doug Potter, Earl Blair, Rick Norwood, Roy Bonario, Lynn Woolley, and many, many more!

"LIVELY", ENTERTAINING PANEL DISCUSSIONS

and, on top of all this, we have a truly outstanding line-up of movies that range from super-hero to sci-fi and offer something of special interest for everyone! Just take a look at THIS lineup...

CAPT. MARVEL--the complete, 12 chapter serial, acknowledged by film fans as the best super-hero serial ever made! Tom Tyler stars as The Big Red Cheese in an epic that is unequalled for thrills and wild action!

BARON MUNCHAUSEN--a special premier showing of this never-before-seen classic science-fiction movie from Germany, in color, no less!

FLASH GORDON--this is a feature-length film version from the very FIRST Flash Gordon serial of 1936, starring Buster Crabbe as Flash and Charles Middleton as Ming the Merciless! Lionmen, hawkmen, cities in the sky,--man, you had better believe it!

THIEF OF BAGDAD--a fantastic epic of fantasy, winner of the 1941 Oscar for Special Effects...and it's all in color!

PLUS: On Friday night (June 21), beginning at 11:00 p.m. and lasting all night will be NON-STOP THEATRE, with movies all night long for those who don't want to sleep! We have such all-time greats as the uncut version of KING KONG, Bela Lugosi in THE VAMPIRE BAT, several nostalgic westerns from the "good ol' days," the awesome thriller of MIGHTY JOE YOUNG, several classics of comedy with the Laurel and Hardy team, and if that isn't enough, Con Film Director Mark Lamberti has some surprise films lurking in the shadows too...

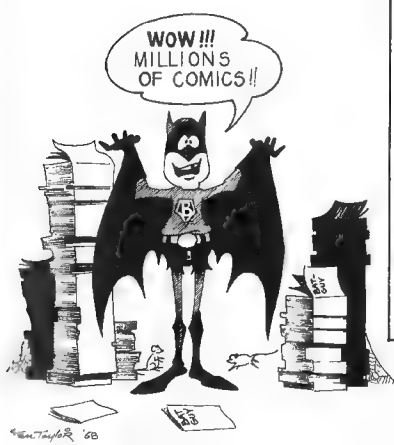
So, with all these goodies planned now, and more activities being scheduled all the time, we urge you not to miss THE SOUTHWESTERNCON, the big event in fandom for 1968! All the arrangements have been made---we have TWO big convention rooms to assure everyone plenty of "elbow room," and we've gotten very reasonable room rates for out-of-town guests who'll be staying at the hotel. Rooms can be reserved in advance through the Con Chairman, and rates are covered in our special Con Booklet (details given below). The Hotel Southland offers free parking and its restaurant is open 24 hours a day, for your convenience.

Convention tickets are a mere $2.50, which covers admission and all related activities; this is your best entertainment buy in fandom! Dealer tables are also $2.50 each, and we have plenty to go around, although reserving one in advance is a good idea. If you have material to sell or trade, then man, this is where the action is!'---and any fan who has attended our Cons in past years will agree with that statement!

We urge you to make your plans to attend, and to get your tickets right away. (And by the way, we have a real surprise for those of you who buy tickets in advance; full details in our Con Booklet.) To get your tickets, send cash, check, or money order to:

Larry Herndon (Chairman)
1830 Highland Drive
Carrollton, Texas 75006

And now about our Special Con Booklet--just keep reading...



Ken Taylor '68

DON'T MISS IT!!

The Con Booklet is ready for mailing now, and has more info on the Con, hotel room rates, tips on how to locate the Hotel Southland in Dallas, details on the "surprise" offered to those who buy tickets in advance, a look (?) at our Con Committee, and other fun-type goodies!! The zine is free, but please include a 6¢ stamp for postage. Copies may be had upon request from the Con Chairman.

FANTASY ILLUSTRATED 8

With number eight, FANTASY ILLUSTRATED expands into interior color by presenting AT SEA—an unusual 12 page story printed in 2 colors, with art by Jim Gardner and breakdowns by Bill Spicer. Then, still more color underscores the first two dynamic pages of #8's GRAPHIC STORY REVIEW. :: George Metzger follows his triumphant FI debut (last issue's mind - bending MASTER TYME & MOBIUS TRIPP) with the sensational new series, KALEIDASMITH....12 pages of art and story designed for the discriminating reader who demands the new, the different, the unique— and gets it with KALEIDASMITH. :: Richard Kyle is on hand with another installment of his highly acclaimed GRAPHIC STORY REVIEW column; and the editor continues his own series, NEW DIRECTIONS, with an essay on Charles Biro's TOPS, a little known comic magazine published in the late forties that was the first attempt at marketing an adult comic book. Rounding out the issue is an extra-length letters section featuring commentary from top fans and professionals. :: FI is a full size 8½ x 11 magazine printed offset litho throughout with 4-color front and back covers and saddle-stitched wrap-around binding. A four-issue subscription is $3.00, single copies are 75¢; all mailed flat in manila envelopes. BACK ISSUES: there's a limited supply of #7 available, and #7 only...75¢ each, as long as the supply lasts. This classic issue contains the experimental MASTER TYME, Richard Kyle's definitive FANTASTIC FOUR essay, Mike Barrier's 20-page CAPTAIN EGG strip, front cover by Wallace Wood & Dan Adkins, and more!

FANDOM AGENT NO. 1

DEAR FANDOM,

You have long wanted a monthly, quality adzine, much like RB&CC. I am now ready to publish one. Altho two or three other monthly adzines are now set up, I feel mine will be far superior to them for the following reasons.

The contributors I have lined up are the best, (among them Syd Shores, of CA fame), but more of this later. The main attraction simply is....a monthly, photo-offset, wrap-around adzine. Have you ever wished your ad would appear twice as fast as it does in RB&CC, that you could hear twice as much about fandom, that the ad deadline would always be the same date, or that you could advertise for about 1/3 to 1/2 of what you presently pay? If so, this is for you, as it will fulfill all of these needs, plus added benefits. (At this point I would like to say that I am not trying to replace RB&CC, but merely to help fandom--I personally will continue to subscribe to RB&CC).

If you are still reading, possibly you are moderately interested, so I'd like to explain a few benefits. The first and principle benefit, is that this is monthly. Ads will appear on time. You can find dealer's newest lists twice as often. There is twice as much chance that the person selling the comic you want will have it-et cetera, et cetera, et cetera.

This zine will be photo-offset, wrap-around from the start, 8 1/2 x 11, insuring everything this system of reproduction insures. (amazing logic) Circulation is very high, due to extensive advertising. Rates will be much less than you are now paying. Subscription and ad rates are as follows: 4 ish-$1.50, First Class-$2.20, Air Mail-$4.40 / 8 ish-$2.60, First Class-$4.10, Air Mail-$7.20 / 12 ish-$4.40, First Class-$6.50, Air Mail-$11.50. ADS: Full Page-$9.00, 8 1/2 x 11, reduced to 1/2 page-$5.00, reduced to 1/4 page-$2.50. As for contributions, I must call a tie- I feel RB&CC has among the best and so have I. I will try to center most contributions on well-written columns and articles, from America, England and Australia.

EXTRAS...Well, to start with, I am going to give away a comic, BLB, or something related to our hobby to a subscriber with each issue - it will be something fairly rare, too. The first gift for issue #1, May 1968, will be-ready?- a BLB, namely, BUCK ROGERS in the 25th Century AD, from 33 years past. (Isn't that wonderful?!) To insure impartiality, my blindfolded aardvark will pick the winners. I'm also ging to give a free ad to anyone who has some project which is of general interest to fandom. This includes comicons, clubs, and perhaps certain fanzines.

ADS...Ad deadlines will always be the same - the first of the month for the following month's issue. All ads should be submitted on 8 1/2 x 11 white paper, ready to be printed. There is no additional charge for "display ads." I can still place some ads for the May issue, if they are in by April 1st. For ad rates, see above.

FIRST ISSUE...The outline for FANDOM AGENT #1, May 1968, is going to surprise you, so I'm going to keep it a secret. However I promise a front cover with a never before published original by Syd Shores, of Capt. America... plus over 25,000 comics for sale or trade.

This about completes my ad--thanx for listening to me rave on. Please tell me any suggestions you may have to improve this idea, and, if the mood strikes you, subscribe. Remember, we both need each other.

Best,
Chuck

THE FARCE of FANDOM

LOOK!

Yes friend now you can get the Farce of Fandom (which is a great new funny fanzine which America has just been crying for) The Farce of Fandom No. 1 includes such great features (in this fifty page epic) as the Daring Trio, who are the protectors of fandom (see them battle fierce comic book dealers over the whole continent) And lets not forget OUR version of an Interview With Stan Lee (in which we portray him as a mean stinkin old money grabber!) Craptonman V.S. Capt. Marvin in the battle of the century of the century in Capt. Marvin Goes to Court! (you will actually see the slightly exaggerated court battle between Capt. Marvin and Craptonman!) And mixed in we put in alot of small articles, jokes and other junk.

You can not afford to miss this big offer. We at Farce of Fandom have taken great pains in presenting this 50 page epic, which has the best material any fanzine could hope for. Not to mention (but we will anyway) a great photo-offset cover!!!! And it is in five great colors (black, purple, white, red and green) What more could anyone ask of somebody else????? Now here is the part that will grab you, you get all this for only a small sum of 35¢ and everybody gets there copy mailed in a stron manila envelope! Where to send your money to??? Mail 35¢ in cash, money or coin, to:

BARRY E. SIEGEL
9300 KERNSIDE ROAD
L.A. CALIF. 90035

Get your copy now before we are over stocked with them. It would be a shame for anyone to miss this issue (especially for us!)

ALL COMICS ARE IN GOOD OR BETTER CONDITION. FREE COMIC (MY CHOICE) GIVEN WITH EACH $2.50 ORDER. ADD 40¢ POSTAGE ON EVERY 20 COMICS. LIST ALTERNATES.

OLD COMIC MAGAZINES FOR SALE

Claude Held P.O. Box 140 Buffalo,N.Y.14225

Terms: Kindly send payment with all orders. Prompt refund on sold out items but include alternate choices if possible especially on Marvels. All mags are VG and better condition. VG doesn't mean mint but in average condition. I will try to fill want lists for those that XF to mint at higher prices but most comics on these lists will average better than VG. Those of lesser grade are marked F = fair; G = good; P = poor; NC = no covers; CO = center fold out; PM = couple of pages missing; PA = couple of panels out; CC = coupon cut; PC = very small part of cover cut.

All prices are net and per one. All prices on older lists are void. On all orders under $5 include 25¢ extra. I insure all orders over $10 except foreign. On orders under $10 if you want insurance - include 20¢ extra. I am not responsible for uninsured orders that get lost. No returns except where not as listed. Customers receive lists free - others - lists are 25¢.

Important - all prices are per issue. 1-9 = 1 thru 9 available but only one comic in the group is the stated price. I have had to return too many orders because customer thought that Fantastic Four #41 thru 70 - 75¢ meant that he was to get 30 comic mags for 75¢ instead of one.

Marvel Mirror

Marvel Mirror #3*4 is a special doubled-up (in pain?) issue, printed photo-offset throughout, with a wraparound binding; it contains the following features:

"The X-Men: An X-Ercise in Improbability?" by Greg Kishel, which examines the biological feasibilities of the powers of various Marvel mutants?  "Surfer of the Starwinds," and "Narrator from Beyond the Brink," two Marvel-based poems by Maximilian Josefski.  "The Fifth Column," by Dwight Decker; this installment deals with a possible new term for the fantasy/comics sub-genre.  The second installment of "Marvel's Jack Pages," by Tony Isabella, a column dedicated to discussion on the little-known ATLAS titles of the 1950's.  "The Mightiest of All...Killed by the Crud," by Dwight Decker, recounting the unfortunate fates of the old MLJ heroes in their "Mighty" incarnations.  The first installment of "Mission: Polish Marvel," our new discussion column open to all readers of MarMir. The first topic was "Do you feel that Marvel's constant hip-talk and 'cute' humor impairs their serious drama?" We've published quite a few interesting answers to this question, some of them by top fans!  And, fabulous artwork by Steve Utley (whose whizzor you see above) and Dave Russell (whose Galactus you see below), as well as additional art by Bud Fern and others. For an extra-special treat we have a fantastic cover of Hercules, Hawkeye, and Dragon Man engaged in a battle royal, rendered by Steve Utley!! And, the absolute crowning touch to issue #3*4:

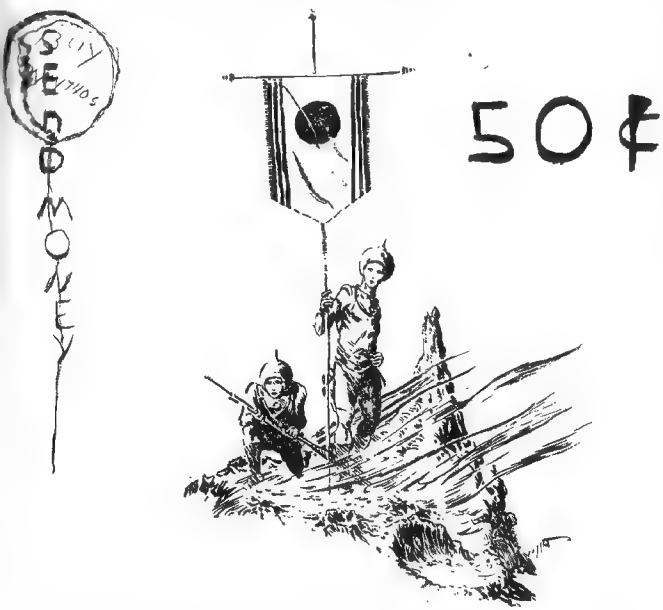
APOLOGIA

We at MYTHOS would like to apologize for the poor quality of our ad in RB-OC #64;we admit that it was a rush job and that the lack of work showed.The ad was NOT a true indication of the quality we hope to bring you in MYTHOS.We hope this ad is better and we promise to do better in the future.

Due to a number of problems with parents, money, and Uncle Sam the first issue has not been printed as yet.Barring further problems it should be out in late March.To help make up for the delay we have added pages bringing the page count to a total of 40.Mythos is still photo-offset with wraparound binding, all for 50¢.While Mythos is lovingly devoted to the old newspaper strip classics and to the many great artists and writers of the graphic story you can expect to see material ranging from Science-fiction to Fantasy, from the Golden Age pulps to the Golden Age comics, and from the wildly bizarre to the insanely odd.The mind boggles...

But no matter what the subject matter we promise you it will be interesting, well-written, and profusely illustrated.So take a chance.Thank you.



...Second and future issues...

IN THE DAYS OF HAL FOSTER
An in-depth study of this master's style and work.This is going to be a comprehensive study of everything concerning Mr.Foster and his effect on the comics.Profusely illustrated with reprints of his strips and comics.

AN IN-DEPTH STUDY OF THE ARTISTS AND WRITERS WHO HAVE HANDLED THE TARZAN STRIP.

Don't just take my word for it,see for yourself,hold and own the proof, see if I'm a lier or not.See how it sounds.....

Before going into the listing of comics I'd like to make this offer to radio tape collectors. I am program director at a radio station here and am willing to make high-quality dubs (7½ ips only) of any old radio shows you might want duplicated. You must supply your own tape. I will perform this service free to anyone...you see while the tapes are in my hands I will also make myself a dub for my collection. Write before sending any tapes.

SPY SMASHER

That's right Fawcett's great comic hero is now available on tape. All tape recorder owners can now have, the sound from the movie SPY SMASHER RETURNS (this movie was actually a cut-down version of the Spy Smasher serial). In this movie (as in the original serial) SS battles The Mask, an enemy agent out to steal Americas war secrets.

It runs 1½ hours, is in good sound condition, and stars Kane Richmond as SPY SMASHER, Marguerite Chapman as Eve Corby,

The special price on this tape is only $5.00. It will be recorded on a 7 inch reel (unless you specify 5 inch) at 3 3/4 ips.

For you that only have small recorders that take only 3 inch reels, you can order it by sending $6.00 and two empty 3 inch reels. (We will record it for you at 1 7/8 ips).

If you have the ADVENTURES OF CAPTAIN MARVEL on tape, you will certainly want to add this SPY SMASHER adventure to your collection.

THE ADVENTURES OF CAPTAIN MARVEL

"Chapter 1 opens with the Malcolm expedition in Siam, where are trying to uncover secret information about the ancient Scorpian Dynasty. They locate a tomb but it bears an inscription warning against entering, but it is disregarded by all except young Billy Batson. A volcano erupts trapping all but Billy who is then confronted by an ageless man--Shazam. He then bestows upon Billy the ability to transform himself into the mighty CAPTAIN MARVEL, by simply saying the word SHAZAM! As Marvel, Billy rescues hisw friends and then changes back to Billy Batson...."

And that is the beginning of this 12 chapter serial by Republic Pictures. And now, if you have a tape recording machine, you can now have for your collection the sound from the entire serial, which runs approximately 3 hours and 40 minutes. Yes, this will be a valuable addition to your super hero collection. And it is now available to you from THE SFCA's tape department at the regular price of $8.25. It is recorded at 3 3/4 ips and is in good to very good sound.
ORDER FROM: THE SFCA, RADIO TAPE DEPT., 9875 SW 212 ST., MIAMI, FLA. 33157
